

Patriots` Gold

Virginia Frances Voight

How could a fourteen-year-old orphan, apprenticed to a master printer and too young to join the army, aid his country during its battle for independence from England? Sam found a way.