

Patron of Terror

Adimchinma Ibe

Tammy Peterside, the hardnosed detective from Treachery In The Yard, with a problematic love life, on suspension from events in the first novel, is brought back to work to solve the murders of the candidate and his wife and their driver. Tammy soon discovers that the secret to the killings may lie in the Niger Delta, source of both Nigerias wealth and its many problems. Terrorists appear to be operating out of the Delta, orchestrating political assassinations and sabotage of oil company property. It soon comes down to Tammy Peterside solving the mystery of both the killings and of what the terrorists in the Delta are really after! In this his second novel, Adimchinma Ibe explores the hell that is the Nigerian Delta, source of oil money and corruption in modern Nigeria.
