This is a Baptized in Spiritual Fire Production, our objective is to distribute educational publications regarding the revolutionary events that resulted in the Third Awakening that began as early as 1848 and lasted throughout the early 1900s in which there were numerous commentaries, biblical critical scholarship, historical and archaeological research, from people of various walks in life from countries such as: America, France, Scotland, Germany, England, Ireland, Sweden and Italy. Men and women who took it upon themselves to defend not only the books of Moses and the Prophets of Israel but also the character of the main protagonist of the texts, Yahveh our Elohim, from an all-out attack that has continued to this very day. A concerted sinister coup to depose the only personal Messiah that laid down his life to help us find ours launched by an ego driven intellectual arsenal of supposed facts derived from theories yet to be proven are just some of the deadly arrows that pierced the Living Word of the scriptures. As this human army motivated by greed and negative forces challenged the credibility of the scriptures, they gathered together like roman soldiers at the foot of the Cross on Calgary to divide the garments of the scriptures. These intellectual materialists sought to cast lots for the spiritual integrity of the Word. Some were Naturalists, Scientists, Agnostics, Theist, Atheists, Theosophists, Astrologers, Masons, and even Spiritualists that opened the door to an ancient dark force and its army that now roam the world haunting the consciousness of those bereft of any true knowledge of what has happened to biblical spiritual teachings. Even Christian theologians, secularized priests, ministers and rabbis who through a misunderstanding of the book of Genesis, surmised erroneous views regarding the purpose of the creation narrative. Some also taught the Bible was not Divinely inspired, but is merely stories written by men over the centuries. While others edited or mistranslated its texts to suit their own particular cause and political agendas. All these things have taken us even further away from the absolute simplicity and yet, stupendous vision that Moses was an eyewitness to in 1490 B.Y. A vision that very few of these agitators are even aware of, although there were some Scottish theologians that brought forth evidence Moses did have a vision, this kind of teaching was quickly squelched and ridiculed, while abject doctrines of evolution and humanism were eventually adapted by those who decided among themselves that they are the most fit to decide the fate of these divine scriptures for the rest of us. Today, we are also told by many different groups that the people described in the scriptures, were not really historical at all, but were just allegorical or mythical characters like those found in Roman and Greek mythology. Unbeknownst to many of them, even mythology has stolen elements from the writing of Moses and the character Noah is actually the most venerated figure of all nations but under different names assigned by each culture. Others say that Moses could not have possibly written about his own death and the future of people he never lived to see born. As a result of these conflicting portrayals, many innocent people have gotten the impression that the scriptures are not very reliable or necessary at all. So, it is not really their fault, for they have been greatly deceived as foretold by the prophet Isaiah who saw in the future, our future, that many would not be able to read the scriptures, even the learned would profess they cant understand what is written in the book. As a result some have gone so far as to challenge whether a Creator even exists. We assure you there is absolute infallible evidence to prove that we have been terribly lied to, not only does the Creator exist, but so does a hidden world where many souls of humanity still consciously enter the battle of the ages.
