

Pause/Silence/Laughter : And Other Plays

Jordan Toney

Enter into the surreal dreamscapes of five short plays dealing with time, memory, love, and how we are bound by the dreams that come to us in our deepest sleep. In Photographs, a man comes to terms with his life and possible afterlife. In Pause/Silence/Laughter, a troubled mime remembers a long lost love. In The Clown and the Train Station, a lonely clown struggles to move on from his past. In Alack Alack, four strangers are connected by their dreams. And in Shelter, a family tries to stay together in a world that has left them behind.
