

Pavor Nocturnus

J P Renehan

Three individuals attempt to come to terms with the night terrors they are all experiencing. The parallels between their dreams are alarming. Their journey is peppered with bizarre experiences, some horrifying and others humorous. The theme of Celtic mythology runs through the book, interplaying with the run down state of many of the locations. The book works on a number of levels, unlike most horror novels and contains a real humour which the reader will relish.
