Joseph Paxton

Excerpt from Paxton's Magazine of Botany, and Register of Flowering Plants, 1839, Vol. 6 Considering the already elevated and rapidly rising condition of botanical and ?oricultural science, it is peculiarly encouraging to the editor of the magazine or botany to find that, with so many other and more talented individuals exerting their powers in the same service, his humble efforts to aid in spreading a higher intellectual appreciation of these interesting subjects, meet with such stedfast and munificent support.
