Andrea Cagan

The biographical, modern epic of Prem Rawat (Sant Ji/Maharaji) from prodigy child guru, addressing Indian audiences in the hundreds of thousands to reaching more than ten-million, in 70 languages, on every habitable continent, from rural Africa to the United Nations in New York City. There was, and still is, an aura of mystery about him: Who is he, really? Does he, as some claim, hold the key to a greater, enlightened understanding of human life?
