

Peace or War East of Baikal? (Classic Reprint)

Ernest John Harrison

Excerpt from Peace or War East of Baikal? I avail myself of this opportunity to extend most sincere and hearty thanks to those who in various ways have helped me in the task of compiling this volume. For several excellent photographs of Russian statesmen I am indebted to His Excellency Senator Malewsky Malewitch, Russian Ambassador to Japan. For four admirable scenes illustrative of native life and gold mining in East Siberia I have to thank a good friend of mine, Mr. G. B. Atkinson of the Orsk Goldfields, Limited, north of Nikolaevsk, on the Okhotsk coast, my only regret in this context being that the space at my disposal would not permit me to avail myself of numerous other highly-interesting and characteristic snap shots from his extensive collection. I am also a heavy debtor to the management of the South Manchuria Railway Company for innumerable courtesies extended to me at various stages of my journey through South Manchuria, and it is owing to the kindness of the great Japanese corporation that I am able to include in this volume a very useful railway map of the province.
