Have you ever felt that modern life tries to steal hope from lasting love and enduring faith? Three Georgia women face the challenge to believe in happily-ever-after endings. Shannon McNab has lost her boyfriend when her super-model looks are marred in an accident. Jill Hargrove buries the pain in her past by focusing on a business in ruins. Cindi Clark is ready to sell her bridal boutique after her parents announce that they are divorcing. Three determined men will attempt to change these women’s opinions of love.
